Fire Destroys Samuels Home.

Fire that originated about the stove over the kitchen at the home of David Samuels, on the Columbus Pike west of town, Wednesday, completely destroyed the home. Sparks ignited the roof of a stable nearby and this building burned to the ground.

KARL H. BULL.

Our Neighbors.

She was a rather plump old lady, and had always tried to be accommodating to her neighbors; but even her obliging spirit had to refuse a request from a neighbor who sent by her little boy the following message: "Please, ma'am, mother sent me over to see if I couldn't get a couple of pounds of lard off of you."

The Circus Auctioneer.

An auctioneer who had grown gray in the work had been urged repeatedly to retire.
"Not till I get a chance to auction off a circus," he said. "That is the height of my ambition. It is the point every good auctioneer works for. Not many attain it, because there are not enough circuses to go around, but so long as a man wields the hammer he clings to the hope of getting a fling at a circus some day. I can't explain the fascination."
"Men who have sold circuses at auction tell me that it requires no more ability to sell lions and elephants than to sell butter. Maybe they are right, but circus managers must think otherwise, for of all the people who have goods to dispose of at auction the circus man is most particular about the qualifications and experience of his auctioneer."

Tarnished Regimental Colors.
Through the efforts of Lord Campbell, who is known to take great interest in all regimental colors, there were discovered two or three years ago in a pawnshop the flags of the Fifty-fifth (Westmoreland) regiment. These colors date as far back as 1760, and there is little doubt that they had been hidden away in the dark recesses of the pawn-broking establishment for over a century.—London Mail.

Depended on the Kind.

He was a good American banker, and his son was studying art abroad. In course of time he received this cable from the London bank where he had deposited an account to his son's name: "Your son has drawn a sight draft on you for 20,000. Shall I honor it?" Hot over the cable went back this answer: "If it's those little French things, all right. If it's pounds send him home."

Social Function Pleasant Affair.

One of the very pleasant social affairs of the summer was a reception last Saturday afternoon given by Mrs. P. P. Foster in honor of her guest, Miss Noland, of London. The spacious parlors of the Foster House had been tastefully decorated for the afternoon with cut flowers and potted plants. Forty ladies were guests of the hostess and music and amusement afforded a pleasant afternoon for all. Luncheon with punch was served. Mrs. Foster was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. Harry Nagley and Mrs. G. H. Haggard. The entertainment was given by Mrs. G. H. Haggard, of Blanchester, and Miss Opal Venard, of Jamestown.

Prefers Politics To School Work.

The report is given out that Dr. S. D. Fess has declined an informal invitation to consider the superintendency of the Cleveland public schools at $10,000 per year. It is stated that the Dr. is ambitious for political honors and would prefer Washington life to that of the classroom. The salary of congressman is but $7,500, most of which is required to live in that aristocratic city if one expects to be among the powers.

Discretion an Asset.

In this country consideration has been created at times by discrimination against men over thirty-five seeking employment from railway and other corporations. In England there are employers who hardly credit individuals under thirty-five with having attained the age of discretion. It is interesting to note that the British postoffice department, which has taken over the operation of all the telephones in the country, is considering the advisability of replacing young women operators by older women, especially widows. It is held that the older women have steadier nerves and are better fitted to deal with fractious subscribers.—Milwaukee Wisconsin.

Astronomical Discovery.

One of the greatest discoveries of science is due to observation of the eclipses of Jupiter's moons. It was found that when the earth was in the part of its orbit nearest to Jupiter those eclipses occurred sixteen minutes earlier than when it was in the farthest part; whereas by all rules of astronomy they should have occurred at the same minute each time. It was deduced from this that light was not instantaneous, and consequently took sixteen minutes to traverse the distance of about two hundred million miles, thus giving to light a velocity of one hundred and eighty-six thousand miles a second, which was accurately shown later by other experiments.

COLLEGE COMMENCEMENT CLOSES.

The most prosperous year of Cedarville College came to a close Friday with commencement in the Reformed Presbyterian church.

The class orator was Dr. John F. Hergot, pastor of the Ninth Street Baptist church, Cincinnati, who chose for his subject "The Elements That Make for True Living," a discourse not only suitable to the class on such an occasion but others as well.

The diplomas were presented by Dr. McKinney to the following twelve graduates: Grace Lillian Beckley, Samuel Arthur Dean, Phil DeWitt Dixon, Walter Payne Harriman, Howard Wesley McGaffie, Wilhelmina Edith Miley, Ila Myrtle Ramsey, William Ream Shroades, Hugh Turnbull, Martha Anderson, Ethel Viola Githens and Blanch Turnbull.

Three honorary degrees were conferred upon former students. Doctor of Divinity upon Dr. Raymond P. Garbold, missionary of the Presbyterian church in Japan, who attended the commencement; the same degree for Rev. O. M. Evans, pastor of the First Congregational church in Cincinnati, who is the editor of a Bible Encyclopedia; Master of Arts upon Miss Alfratta Hammond, who has been a missionary in Egypt and was here on a vacation.

Mr. J. H. Stormont has been elected a trustee in place of Rev. C. A. Young, of Boston. Mr. J. A. Plumer is a member of the board representing the alumni. Miss Grace Ritchie of New Concord, daughter of Rev. Ritchie, pastor of the Clifton U. F. church, has been elected as instructor in English in place of Miss Agnes Smith, who resigned. During the summer the college building will undergo some improvements and by fall new furniture will be added and equipment for the laboratory. The endowment is placed at $75,000.

Friday afternoon the alumni chose the following officers: S. C. Wright, president; Miss Vera Andrew, recording secretary and treasurer; Miss Josephine Orr, corresponding secretary. Rev. Homer McMillan, of Atlanta, Ga., was chosen as a member of the alumni on the Board of Trustees of the college.

Friday evening the alumni association gave a banquet in honor of the new class. Mr. Elkanah Finney was toastmaster and gave the address of welcome. Mr. W. P. Harriman responded for the class. Miss Alfratta Hammond gave a toast on "The Nile," and Dr. McKinney on "The College, Its Retrospect and Its Prospect."

Great Writer's Secretiveness.

Ibsen's secretiveness while composing a drama made no exception of his wife. Says a biographer: "When the Ibsens and Sigurd were traveling by rail Fru Ibsen picked up a scrap of paper that had fallen unnoticed on the floor. The only words on it were 'the doctor says.' Conspiring with Sigurd and putting the paper out of sight, Fru Ibsen presently asked her husband, 'What sort of a doctor have you in your play?' After a moment of speechless horror, the poor man poured out a torrent of protest. 'Was his desk unsafe? Were there spies in his home? And so on and so on.' Even when the practical joke was explained to him it was some time before he was calm.

REFORM A LA MODE.

The "reformers" in this county are soon to be treated to a course of "reform a la mode." It will be the culmination of the union of the two factions during the Dean bribery trial, members of each faction having been indicted for election falsification some time ago.

It is no longer a question as to the factions getting together. All the proof will be found when the "reformers," those who have believed that the term really meant what Webster defines it, are asked to step up and support the Right Honorable Michael A. Broadstone for State Senator in this, the Fifth-Sixth district.

Mr. Broadstone holds a high degree for faithful services to the Schmidt-Shoup faction, having been a member of this organization since the mind of man runneth not. Mr. Broadstone lately won new laurels in his defense of County Auditor Dean during the bribery trial. By playing between the two factions the astute attorney has caused to be cemented certain ties that will insure him the nomination and election as State Senator and he will be one "gangster" that will not be opposed by the "reform gang." In this case there is little danger of any opposition, for the "reformers" found themselves as deep in the mire as the other gang was in the mire, and Michael saved the day for them. When the order for the reform gang notify you that your support is expected for a member of the Schmidt-Shoup faction, even though it may be bitter, the nasty taste will wear away when you remember there must be some reward for saving the Citizens' League of further exposure. Anyhow everybody's going to be for Broadstone for State Senator, the "gang" business don't count this time.

Miss Constance Clemans, of Xenia, is spending the week with Miss Dorothy Oglesbee.

Miss Saydie Ulit, who has been teaching at the Girls' Industrial School at Delaware, has given up her position and returned home.

Mr. John B. Wright and wife, and daughter, Miss Laura, who have been attending college, returned to their home in Idaville, Ind., Monday.

Oiling the streets seems to be the rage in Springfield, Xenia, Waynesville, Washington, C. H. and Jamestown. The Jamestown Journal last week stated that the oiling in that village is being paid for by individuals and costs from fifty cents to one dollar, according to the frontage at three cents a square foot. The plan to oil the streets has been held up for the present owing to the streets being torn up while the new curbs and gutters are being placed. During this time Mr. D. S. Elving is sprinkling and the dust, that was terrible for a while, is being kept down.

Hood thence as the compass now reads along the center line of said pike, N. 43 degrees W. 2.56 chains to the intersection of said center line with the center line of this lot and land of Geo. W. INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

(By E. O. SELLERS, Director of Evening Department, The Moody Bible Institute of Chicago.)

LESSON FOR JUNE 16.

CHRIST'S WITNESS TO JOHN THE BAPTIST.

LESSON TEXT—Matt. 11:2-19. GOLDEN TEXT—"Among them that are born of women there is none greater than John; yet he is less in the kingdom of God than he."—Luke 7:28.

This is the last lesson with the exception of one that we are to have upon the character of John the Baptist. Following the imprisonment of John by Herod, Jesus, for diplomatic reasons, made Capernaum his headquarters and it was in Galilee that his great popular ministry was performed. Meanwhile John is shut up in the fortress at Machaerus, on the east side of the Dead sea. For one who had been so intensely active to be obliged to sit idly by and wait while another's name and fame increases daily was a severe test of faith. His prototype, Elijah, had to meet a similar testing (1 Kings 19: 3, 4); why, therefore, need we wonder that doubts should arise in the mind of the greatest "born of woman?" Not one of us at all familiar with the experiences of John and the subtlety of temptation will be surprised when under these circumstances we read of John's question, v. 2-4. This doubt is so natural that it bears upon its very face the stamp of being genuine and that the record was not fabricated. It is noticeable in the form of John's question that he had no doubt as to the character of Jesus, the genuineness of his miracles, nor any question but that he was sent of God, but still he questioned, "Is this the Messiah?"

John was not envious (John 3:27-36), he was too great a man to be that, but yet Jesus had not wielded the axe as he had expected, hence the messenger for Jesus and this frank question. John saw the good example of taking his doubts to Jesus, and Jesus in a most tender way answered his doubting and at the same time turns it to his own advantage in confirming his claims as the Messiah.

John sought Not His Own Glory. The second half of the lesson is the tribute of Jesus to the life and character of John the Baptist. Jesus has, as we have just seen, sent his word of comfort and cheer to John when he turns to the multitudes with a highly eulogistic testimony as to John's work.

His work and his greatness. True, his faith seemed to be shaken for the moment, but John was not a "reed shaken of the wind," indeed not. John was not a man seeking his own glory (Luke 3:16), nor his own comfort (Matt. 3:1, 4). He was not clad sumptuously (Luke 7:25). No, John was a prophet, a man sent, commissioned in spirit of God. He had authority to speak for God (Luke 1:16, 26) in declaring God's will to man. Yes, John is all of this and more, for he was himself the subject of Old Testament prophecy (Mal. 3:1, etc.). This John was chosen among all men to go before him who was to prepare a highway in the minds and hearts of Israel over which Jesus the Messiah might enter and begin the establishing of this new kingdom. It was in performing this service that John filled one of the highest offices ever filled by man. In this exalted we need to recall the difference in the miraculous birth of these two men. John, supernaturally born of natural parentage, Jesus supernaturally born of woman but conceived of the Holy Spirit, hence the words of Jesus are to be understood that among purely human beings "none greater was born of woman."

Went to Christ Himself.

Jesus' words in verse 15 are tremendous with import. Literally he says: "I have told you these things about John and about my kingdom, now you who have ears have an obligation resting upon you because of what I have told you." There was need of their understanding and accepting an important teaching, but the unreasonable Scribes and Pharisees would accept neither the savior John nor the more social Jesus. John would not join in their party. Jesus mourned not but led a more joyous life, yet they rejected him also. This "Son of Man," not of a man nor the man but son of man, of humanity, known as friend of the needy and the outcast, is himself cast out by the religious leaders of his time. Nevertheless in the wisdom of God (Luke 11:49) both John the Baptist, and Jesus the Son of man and of Mary, have been sent and the results of their lives and of their teachings prove them to be a part of God's wise plan. God's wisdom is justified (v. 19) by its workings or as some translate it by its "children."

Great as was John the forerunner, yet he that is in this newer kingdom Jesus came to establish is vastly greater than the old Hebrews.

One of the six Panama commissioners was, a few years ago, a sub-reporter at two dollars per week, and during that time was much perplexed over the problems of the Christian life and tormented by his doubts. Four successive nights he discussed the matter with his pastor; on the fifth he came with radiant face to inform his pastor that all his questionings were settled for, said he, "I went to Christ himself."

"The Liver Pills act So Naturally and Easily."

Such a statement, coming from the cashier of a bank, shows what confidence responsible people have in these pills. Mr. A. L. Wilson after trying them wrote:

"I have used Dr. Miles' Nerve and Liver Pills and also your Anti-Pain Pills, on myself, with good results. The Liver Pills act so naturally and so easily that I scarcely know that I have taken a pill. Frequently being troubled with headache I take an Anti-Pain Pill and get immediate relief in every case. A. L. Wilson, Sparta, Ill. Mr. Wilson was for a number of years cashier of the First National Bank of Sparta.

Dr. Miles' Nerve and Liver Pills are different from others. Many kinds of liver pills are "impossible" after one trial on account of their harshness. Dr. Miles' Nerve and Liver Pills do not act by sheer force but in an easy, natural way, without gripping or undue irritation. They are not habit forming.
